

STATUTORY AND REGULATORY AUTHORITIES

(Not an exhaustive list of such provisions, nor a complete summary of the content of each provision. Descriptions focus only on primary aspects of each that apply or are relevant to depot maintenance.)

10 U.S.C. 2474

Requires Military Departments to designate depot maintenance activities as Centers of Industrial and Technical Excellence (CITEs), authorizes and encourages public-private partnerships, permits performance of work related to core competencies, permits use of facilities and equipment, and permits sales proceeds for public-private partnerships to be credited to depot accounts.

10 U.S.C. 2208 (j)

Permits depot financed through working capital funds to sell articles and services outside DoD if the purchaser is fulfilling a DoD contract and the contract is awarded pursuant to a public-private competition.

10 U.S.C. 4544

Provides that any AWCF industrial facility may enter into a contract or cooperative arrangement to carry out a military or commercial project with an entity outside of the Army.

10 U.S.C. 2464

Designates ANAD as the U.S. Army's organic depot maintenance facility for the Stryker Family of Vehicles.

10 U.S.C. 2469a

Requires competitive contracting (and authorizes public-private competition and teaming) when outsourcing workloads formerly performed at depots that have been closed or realigned (BRAC).

10 U.S.C. 2563

Authorizes sale of articles or services outside DoD (excluding those authorized under 10 U.S.C. 4543) under specified conditions.

10 U.S.C. 2667

Allows for leasing of non-excess facilities and equipment.

10 U.S.C. 2358

Permits the sale of services or facilities to private sector or other federal agencies for participation in R&D projects relating to weapon systems or other military needs.

10 U.S.C. 4543

Authorizes Army industrial facilities that manufacture cannons, gun mounts, etc., to sell articles or services outside DoD under specified conditions.

10 U.S.C. 2754

Allows for sale of articles and services to friendly countries under specified conditions.

22 U.S.C. 2770

Allows for sale of articles and services to a U.S. company for incorporation into end items to be sold to a friendly foreign country or international organization under specified conditions.

FAR 45.3

Provision of government-furnished material, facilities and equipment to contractors.
